CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I - NAME AND CHARTER

Section 1. Name. The name of this organization shall be THE AMERICAN LEGION, DEPARTMENT OF TEXAS.

Section 2. Charter. The American Legion, Department of Texas, is an integral part of The American Legion as provided in Section 1, Article VIII, of the National Constitution, and chartered by the National Organization. It is incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas.

Section 3. Location of Headquarters. The Department Headquarters shall be located in the Metropolitan area of the city of Austin, Texas.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

Section 1. Objects and Purposes. The objects and purposes of this Department shall be to promote the principles and policies set forth in the foregoing Preamble and the National Constitution of The American Legion.

Section 2. No Military Rank. The American Legion, Department of Texas, is a civilian organization; membership therein does not affect nor increase liability for military or police service. Rank does not exist in the Legion; no member shall be addressed by his military or naval title in any convention or meeting of the Legion.

Section 3. Nonpolitical. The American Legion, Department of Texas, shall be absolutely nonpolitical and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

ARTICLE III - ELIGIBILITY AND MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility Dates and Discharge. Any person shall be eligible for membership in THE AMERICAN LEGION who was a member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or Air Force of the United States and assigned to active duty at some time during any of the following periods: April 6, 1917, to November 11, 1918; December 7, 1941, to December 31, 1946; June 25, 1950, to January 31, 1955; February 28, 1961, to May 7, 1975; August 24, 1982, to July 31, 1984; December 20, 1989, to January 31, 1990; August 2, 1990, to the cessation of hostilities as determined by the government of the United States; all dates inclusive, or who, being a citizen of the United States at the time of his entry therein, served on active duty in the armed forces of any of the governments associated with the United States during any of said periods; provided, however, that such service shall have been terminated by honorable discharge or honorable separation, or continued honorably after any of said periods; provided further, that no person shall be entitled to membership who, being in such service during any of said periods, refused on conscientious, political or other grounds to subject himself to military discipline or unqualified service.

Section 2. One Class of Membership. There shall be no form or class of membership except active membership. Membership shall be only through a local Post, and dues shall be paid annually or for life.

Section 3. Membership in Only One Post. No person may be a member at any one time of more than one post in The American Legion.

Section 4. Admitting Expelled Member. No person who has been expelled by a post shall be admitted to membership in another post without the consent of the expelling post, except that where such consent has been denied by such post, he may then appeal to the Executive Committee of the department of the expelling post for permission to be admitted to membership in another post, and shall be ineligible for membership until such permission is granted.

Section 5. Post Sole Judge of Membership. Each Post shall be the judge of its own membership, subject only to the restrictions of the National and Department Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 6. Transfers. Any member in good standing, to include members of Headquarters Post 345, moving or transferring to a Post near their home shall be transferred using The American Legion Member Data Form, completed by the new Post, without additional payment of dues. The new Post shall be the judge of its own membership in accordance with Article III, Section 5, Department of Texas Constitution and Bylaws. No member may transfer to another Post after an Affidavit of Charges have been filed with the Post Adjutant commencing a disciplinary proceeding. Dues already paid shall remain with the original Post and the transfer shall be complete upon issue of a new membership card

Section 7. Members Found to be Ineligible. If a Post determines one of its members is not eligible for membership, the Post shall notify the Department Adjutant at once in writing so that his name can be forwarded to the National Headquarters for removal from the membership rolls. It shall be presumed that a member who will not furnish proof of eligibility within ninety (90) days of a written request, certified mail, return receipt requested is not eligible for membership in The American Legion.

Section 8. Acceptance of Dues.

a. Delinquent. A member whose dues for the current year have not been paid by January 1st shall be classed as delinquent. If his dues are paid on or before February 1st, he shall be automatically reinstated. If a member pays his dues by February 1st, the Post must accept the dues.

b. Suspension and Forfeiture. If he is still delinquent after February 1st, he shall be suspended from all privileges. He shall have no right to serve as an officer, be elected to office, or vote. If he is still under such suspension on June 30th of such year, his membership in THE AMERICAN LEGION shall be forfeited.

c. Reinstatement. A member so suspended or whose membership has been so forfeited may be reinstated to active membership in good standing by vote of the post and payment of current dues for the year in which reinstatement occurs. Provided, however, that the posts, departments, and the National Organization may waive the provisions hereof, upon payment of dues for the year in which reinstatement occurs, with reference to former members who have been prevented from the payment of dues by reason of active military service.

Section 9. Establishing Dues. A membership fee may be charged by each local Post. Annual dues for Department purposes shall be fixed for the ensuing year at each annual Department Convention, and in the event of failure of the Convention to act, the dues and charges of the preceding year shall be and remain in effect. The dues for the Department Headquarters Post 345 for the ensuing year shall be set at the Midwinter Conference by the Department Executive Committee. The amount of local Post dues shall be fixed by each Post.

Section 10. National Dues. National dues, as determined by the National Convention, shall be collected by the Department in accordance with the National and Department Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 11. Voting on New Members. All applications for membership and transfers in a Post shall be acted upon at the next Post General Membership Meeting following the making of such application or transfer, and shall, at such meeting, be accepted, rejected or referred for further investigation and consideration. If a majority of the members present at the Post General Membership Meeting cast their vote against the acceptance of such application, then such application shall be recorded as rejected.

Section 12. Notice of Expelled Members. The Department Adjutant shall notify all Posts in the Department of Texas and National Headquarters in writing of all members expelled by Posts in the Department.

Section 13. Certificate of Good Standing. Any member in good standing in a post who is moving from the State of Texas is entitled upon request to receive a certificate from his post stating the inclusive dates he was a member of the Post.

Section 14. Eligibility to Hold Office

a. Dues Paid. Any paid-up member in good standing of a Post in the Department of Texas may be elected or appointed to any office in the Department of Texas, except as otherwise provided herein.

b. Documentation of Honorable Service. No person shall be eligible for any office, commission, committee, or board in The American Legion, Department of Texas, or any Division, District or Post thereof, nor if elected or appointed, shall such person continue to hold such office, position or appointment, unless within thirty (30) days after such election or appointment such person shall have furnished proper and satisfactory evidence of honorable service, complying with Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution, to the Department Adjutant, in the case of Department, Division, and District Officers, and to the Post in the case of Post Officers.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

Section 1. Department Officers. The Department Officers shall consist of a Department Commander, a Department Vice Commander, a Department Adjutant, a Department Treasurer, a Department Judge Advocate, a Department Historian, a Department Sergeant at Arms, a Department Chaplain, members of the Department Executive Committee, National Executive Committeeman and Alternate National Executive Committeeman.

Section 2. Election and Terms of Department Officers. The Department Commander, Department Vice Commander, Department Treasurer, Department Judge Advocate, Department Historian and Department Sergeant at Arms shall be elected at the Department Convention; four Division Commanders are to be elected at the Division Caucuses or Division Conventions. The District Commanders and District Vice Commanders shall be elected at the District Convention held in each District. The Division Commanders, the District Commanders and District Vice Commanders elected shall be confirmed by the Department Convention. All elective officers shall serve for a term of one year, except the National Executive Committeeman, Alternate National Executive Committeeman, the District Commanders and District Vice Commanders, who shall serve for a term of two years or until their successors are elected and qualified.

Section 3. Other Provisions.

a. Not to Succeed Themselves. The Department Commander, the Department Vice Commander, Department Sergeant at Arms, Division Commanders, District Commanders and District Vice Commanders are not eligible to succeed themselves, unless serving an unexpired term.

b. Officers to be Appointed. The Department Chaplain shall be appointed annually by the incoming Department Commander, subject to confirmation by the Department Executive Committee. There may be an Assistant Department Sergeant at Arms appointed by the Department Commander and confirmed by the Department Executive Committee.

c. Vacancy of Office of Commander. In case of death, incapacity, resignation or vacancy of the Department Commander, the Department Vice Commander shall immediately take office as Department Commander. The vacant position of Department Vice Commander will be filled as prescribed in Article IV, Section 3 (d).

d. Vacancy of Office of Vice Commander. In case of death, incapacity, resignation or vacancy of the Department Vice Commander, the Department Commander shall immediately call a meeting of the Department Executive Committee to be held within fifteen (15) days from the date of the occurrence to elect a Department Vice Commander from among the Division or District Commanders.

e. Education Prerequisites.

(1) Elected Department Officers. As a prerequisite to nominate for election to the following Department Offices, the candidate for the Office must have completed the most recent ALEI Basic Course:

- Department Commander
- Department Vice Commander
- Department Historian
- Department Treasurer
- Department Judge Advocate
- Department Sergeant-at-Arms
- Division Commanders
- District Commanders

(2) Other Department Officers. Other Department, Division and District Officers and Department Chairmen of Commissions and Committees must complete the ALEI Basic Course within three (3) months of their election or appointment. Failure to complete the course within three (3) months will cause the position to become vacant without further action.

(3) Effective Date. Those officials elected or appointed for the year 2018 – 2019 must complete the ALEI Basic Course by October 15, 2018.

Section 4. Divisions

a. Establishment; Elections. The four Divisions shall be designated by the Department Executive Committee. Each Division Commander shall be a resident and member of a Post within that respective Division; each shall be elected from one of the respective four Divisions and continue to reside in the respective Division during tenure of office.

b. Vacancy of Office of Division Commander. In case of death, resignation, relocation outside of the Division boundaries or the incapacitation of a Division Commander which will cause the Division Commander to miss a Division Convention or Department Executive Committee meeting as scheduled, the Department Commander shall fill the vacancy (after conferring with the District Commanders of said Division) until the Division Commander recovers or is replaced by the Department Commander.

c. Convention. Each Division shall hold at least one convention each year at the call of the Division Commander, the dates of which shall be coordinated with the Department Commander and Department Adjutant. Summary of proceedings shall be forwarded by the Division Commander to the Department Adjutant within thirty (30) days after the convention. In the event of failure or refusal by the Division Commander to call a regular convention, three Posts in the Division shall have the authority to call the convention to be presided over by the Division Adjutant.

a. Establishment. American Legion Districts are hereby authorized. The Department Executive Committee shall designate the specific number and boundaries of Districts. Districts shall be designated by number and boundaries to serve the best interests and the purposes of The American Legion. However, American Legion Districts shall be numbered as now constituted and any changes shall be subject to final action by the Department Convention.

b. Elections. The District Commander and District Vice Commander from evenly numbered Districts shall be elected in evenly numbered years; and, those representing Districts numbered unevenly shall be elected in unevenly numbered years.

c. Convention. Each District shall hold at least one convention each year at the call of the District Commander, the dates of which shall be coordinated with the Department Commander and Department Adjutant. Summary of proceedings shall be forwarded by the District Commander to the Department Adjutant within thirty (30) days after the convention. In the event of failure or refusal by the District Commander to call a regular convention, three Posts in the District shall have the authority to call the convention to be presided over by the District Vice Commander.

Section 6. District Commanders and Vice Commanders.

a. Eligibility. Each District Commander and District Vice Commander shall be a member of a Post in the District from which elected and also shall be a resident of the District or the adjacent District. Failure of the District Commander to comply with these provisions shall cause the District Commander's office to be declared vacant by the Department Commander.

b. Vacancy. If the office of District Commander becomes vacant, the District Vice Commander will assume the office and perform the duties thereof until the next District Convention, at which time a District Commander shall be elected to fill the unexpired term. If the District Vice Commander fails to qualify then a majority of the Post Commanders shall appoint a District Commander to serve until the next District Convention at which time a District Commander and/or a District Vice Commander shall be elected to fill the unexpired term.

Section 7. District Commander's Post-Convention Duties. The District Commander presiding at each District Convention shall be responsible for forwarding a certified copy of the District officers, a listing of the National Convention Delegates and Alternate Delegates elected, and a copy of all resolutions passed at said Convention to the Department Adjutant within ten (10) days after the adjournment of such District Convention.

Section 8. Commencement of Term of Office. All Department officers, including the newly elected members of the Department Executive Committee, shall assume their respective duties at the time of adjournment of the Department Convention, except the National Executive Committeemen and Alternate National Executive Committeeman, whose two-year term shall commence immediately upon the adjournment of the National Convention next ensuing after their election and shall end at the adjournment of the second next succeeding annual convention.

Section 9. Other Vacancies. Vacancies in Department Offices not herein before or hereafter provided for shall be filled by the Department Commander subject to the confirmation by the Department Executive Committee at its next meeting, and written notice of such action mailed to all Posts.

Section 10. Removal of Adjutant. The Department Executive Committee shall have the authority to elect or remove the Department Adjutant by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of its total Members (see Bylaws Article III, I Section 6)

ARTICLE V - POSTS

Section 1. New Posts. Posts shall be formed as provided under the National Constitution and shall be governed on all matters of Department and National finance as set forth in the National Constitution. A minimum of fifteen (15) new members are required to start a Post in the Department of Texas. Such new members may include direct mail solicitation (DMS) members or Department Headquarters Post 345.

Section 2. Department and National Dues. No Post shall have the right by resolution or other Act, to withhold or divert annual Department or National dues collected or funds collected from approved sources of the Department or National organizations.

Section 3. Forwarding Funds. All funds collected for the Department and the National Headquarters shall be forwarded to the Department within 30 days of receipt.

Section 4. Election of Post Officers; Installation. Officers shall be elected at a Post meeting held not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the Department Convention, and at the same time delegates and alternates to the Department Convention shall be elected. Post Officers shall be installed not later than the first regular Post meeting in October following their election.

Section 5. Certification of Officers; Convention Delegates. It shall be mandatory for Post Adjutants to certify to Department Headquarters the names of Post Officers elected/appointed for the ensuing year, immediately, but no later than ten (10) days after their election, as prescribed by the Department Executive Committee, together with a list of delegates and alternates elected to the Department Convention.

Section 6. Proxy Voting. A member of an American Legion Post may authorize proxy voting for himself by another member of the same Post if provided for in the Post Constitution and By-Laws; said proxy shall be in writing and signed by the member issuing it. There will be no proxy voting within the Department of Texas above the Post level.

Section 7. Post Named Only for Deceased. No Post shall be named after any living person.

ARTICLE VI - INTERMEDIATE BODIES

Section 1. Recognize Intermediate Bodies. Intermediate bodies and groups as provided by Article VIII, National Constitution, are recognized. Each shall adopt a Constitution and By-Laws subject to approval by the Department Judge Advocate and the Department Executive Committee.

Section 2. No Uniformity Required for District Constitution & By-Laws. District Constitution and By-Laws are not required to be uniform with other Districts in the District Officers authorized or whether they are elected or appointed.

Section 3. Recommended Constitution and By-Laws Govern. In the absence of an adopted and approved Constitution and By-Laws by a post or intermediate body, the Constitution and By-Laws approved by the Department Executive Committee as a recommended or model Constitution and By-Laws shall be used to govern the activities of that Post or intermediate body.

Section 4. Use of American Legion Name. The name of the Post, name of an intermediate body, or the name of the Department, or of the phrase, "The American Legion" shall not be used in connection with club, entity or business ventures, or in furtherance of any venture of a commercial nature, unless said project is owned in its entirety and controlled solely by said Post or intermediate body, and then, only after the approval of the Department Executive Committee has first been obtained, or between Department Executive Committee meetings, approved by the Department Commander.

Section 5. Limitation on Fundraising. Posts shall not solicit money or donations by employing in part or fully, fundraising organizations or individuals or other entities unless the Post will receive 50% or more of the gross receipts.

Section 6. Municipal Executive Committee. Where there is an Executive Committee, all Posts in the municipality and suburb within its area must be members of and governed by the Executive Committee as to The American Legion policies. Any District or Districts that are included within a municipality or suburb may create an Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII - REAL ESTATE

Section 1. Department Approval Required for Post to Sell. No real estate owned by any Post or trustee of any Post will be sold or used as collateral for a loan without the approval of the Department Executive Committee or where time is of the essence the Department Commander, who shall report said action to the next Department Executive Committee meeting.

Section 2. Notify Department of Liens on Real Estate. Any Post whose real estate becomes encumbered with a lien will notify the Department Adjutant within seven (7) days of receiving notice of the lien.

ARTICLE VIII - AUXILIARIES

Section 1. Recognize Auxiliary. The American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Texas, organized under the provisions of the National Constitution, is a recognized women's auxiliary organization of The American Legion, Department of Texas.

Section 2. Eligibility. Eligibility for membership in the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Texas, shall be the same as that prescribed for membership by the National Constitution and By-Laws, except as provided in Article III of this Constitution.

Section 3. Governance. The Auxiliary shall be governed in this Department of The American Legion by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the National Executive Committee and thereafter approved by this Department of The American Legion.

ARTICLE IX - DISCIPLINE, REVIEW, APPELLATE COURT

Section 1. Discipline of Members. The Department Executive Committee shall provide a Department of Texas Uniform Code of Procedure for Disciplinary Actions that Posts are required to follow in all actions to discipline members of The American Legion.

Section 2. Discipline of Posts. District and Divisions within the Department of Texas are required to use the Department of Texas Uniform Code for Disciplinary actions to initiate actions to discipline Posts within their area of responsibility.

ARTICLE X - DEPARTMENT CONVENTION

Section 1. Time and Place. The Department Convention shall be held annually and shall be called at a date not less than thirty (30) days prior to the National Convention. The time shall be fixed by the Department Executive Committee not less than six (6) months in advance of the Convention. The Convention site shall be designated three years in advance of the Convention by the Department Executive Committee upon the recommendation of the Convention City Commission. In case of emergency the Department Executive Committee or the Department Commander, upon recommendation of the Convention City Commission, may change the date or the place of the Annual Convention.

Section 2. Composition. The Department Convention is composed:

a. Officers. of the Department Commander, Department Officers, and Department Executive Committee, none of whom except the Department Commander, shall be entitled to a vote unless duly elected as a delegate to the Convention by his Post;

b. Post Delegates. of the duly elected delegates from the Posts in the Department.

c. Past Department Commanders. The Past Department Commanders, who served in that capacity while a member of the Department of Texas, who may be present and who are members in good standing of a recognized Post of the Department of Texas, shall have one additional vote to be counted with the votes of their Posts, but the additional vote of no such Past Department Commander shall be counted unless the Past Department Commander is registered as present and on the floor at the Convention.

Section 3. Allocation of Delegates. In the Department Convention each Post shall be entitled to two (2) delegates for the first fifteen (15) members. Posts with less than fifteen (15) members shall be entitled to only one (1) delegate. Each Post shall be entitled to one (1) additional delegate for each twenty-five (25) members or major fraction thereof, whose current dues have been received by Department Headquarters thirty (30) days prior to the date of said convention, and one (1) alternate for each delegate. The registered and certified delegates present at the Department Convention may cast the total votes authorized for the Post.

Section 4. Post Credentials List. Every member authorized to represent a Post as delegate or alternate to the Department Convention shall be listed on the written notice of their appointment by the Post Adjutant on the Credentials list of the Post.

Section 5. Signature Verification of Delegation Chair. Every delegate must be a bona fide member of the Post in the Department of Texas which they represent at the Department Convention. The Chairman of each Post delegation must be identified to the Credentials Committee by a comparison of their signature and the signature on their membership card.

Section 6. Check Membership Cards. All delegates registering at the Department Convention shall be required to present their current American Legion membership cards before being permitted to register.

Section 7. Set Registration Fee. The Fall Meeting of the Department Executive Committee, shall set registration fees which shall be collected from every member who registers at the Department Convention.

Section 8. Order of Election. The Department Commander shall be the last officer elected at the Department Convention.

Section 9. Oath of Office. Upon the election of the Department Officers at the Department Convention, the retiring Department Commander shall administer to each newly elected officer the following oath of office, to wit: "I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR THAT I WILL SUPPORT AND DEFEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, THE STATE OF TEXAS, AND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE AMERICAN LEGION, DEPARTMENT OF TEXAS, AND TRULY PERFORM THE DUTIES OF MY OFFICE, TO THE BEST OF MY ABILITY, SO HELP ME GOD." There upon said officers shall be deemed qualified and shall assume their respective duties in the manner prescribed by this Department Constitution and By-Laws. In the event of the absence from the convention of any newly elected officer, or whenever an occasion requires, the above oath of office may be administered by the Department Commander, the Department Vice Commander, or Department Adjutant.

Section 10. Presiding Officer. The Department Commander, if present, shall preside over the Department Convention, but may call the Department Vice Commander or a delegate to the chair. In the case of the absence of both the Department Commander and Department Vice Commander at the opening of the Convention the Department Executive Committee shall designate a presiding officer to act.

Section 11. Failure to Elect Officer. If the Department Convention fails to meet or to elect and install officers at the appointed time, those in office shall continue and exercise full authority until their successors are duly elected and installed.

Section 12. Effect of Amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws. Amendments to the Department Constitution and By-Laws shall become operative immediately upon adoption. Immediately upon adjournment of the Department Convention, all Posts in the Department shall be notified by the Department Adjutant in appropriate manner of all changes in and to the Department Constitution and By-Laws, and it shall be mandatory that all Posts change their respective Constitutions and By-Laws to conform thereto.

Section 13. Parliamentary Procedure. Parliamentary procedure of the Department Convention and meetings of the Department Executive Committee shall be governed by "Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised."

Section 14. Duration of Convention. The program of the Department Convention shall be limited to three (3) days, including the opening date.

Section 15. Quorum. The registered delegates from a majority of the certified Posts on the floor at the Department Convention shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

Section 16. Convention Rules. The Department Executive Committee shall provide a Uniform Code of Procedure for the orderly organization and operation of Department Conventions with continuing power of revision and said Code shall be applicable at all Department Conventions unless it is amended, suspended, or repealed by a majority vote of the total authorized representation at a Department Convention.

Section 17. Post with No Credentials List. A delegate or delegation of a post with no credentials list signed by the Post Adjutant may complete a credentials list and submit it to the Credentials Committee to be considered as a disputed delegation.

Section 18. Contested Delegation. In the case of a disputed or contested delegation from a post, the Credentials Committee will bring the case with a recommendation to the Department Convention for a decision. A majority vote of the Department Convention will decide the case.

ARTICLE XI - NATIONAL CONVENTION DELEGATES

Section 1. Election. Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention shall be elected in the following manner: One Delegate and One Alternate shall be elected for each one thousand members of the District at the District Convention, excluding fractional parts of a thousand. One Delegate and One Alternate shall be elected by each Division Convention or Caucus. All additional Delegates and Alternates shall be elected by the Department Convention. A Nominating Committee, consisting of the regularly elected Delegates from the Divisions, shall nominate such additional Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention; provided, however, this shall not exclude the nominating of Delegates-at-Large on the floor of the Convention.

Section 2. Registration. Upon election as a delegate or an alternate to the National Convention each delegate and alternate shall remit their registration fee to Department. Registration fees of the Delegates and Alternates to the National Convention shall then be remitted by Department. Guests wishing to be registered at the National Convention must remit a registration fee as determined by National to Department.

Section 3. Alternates. When a duly elected Delegate to the National Convention is not present, an Alternate from within the District or Division of the absentee shall be chosen by the Delegation Chairman. Only where there is no one present from a certain District or Division shall the Delegation Chairman be permitted to appoint a substitute from another District or Division.

ARTICLE XII - NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEEMAN

Section 1. Election. One National Executive Committeeman and one Alternate National Executive Committeeman shall be elected at Department Conventions held in even years, and shall serve for a period of two years, as provided under Article VII of the National Constitution. The Alternate National Executive Committeeman shall have all the powers of the National Executive Committeeman at the meetings at which the National Executive Committeeman is not present.

Section 2. Vacancy. In the event of a vacancy in the office of National Executive Committeeman or Alternate National Executive Committeeman, the Department Executive Committee at its next meeting shall elect an eligible person to serve for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE XIII - BY-LAWS

Section 1. By-Laws Not to Conflict with Constitution. This organization shall be governed according to By-Laws adopted at Annual Department Conventions and said Department By-Laws shall not conflict with the provisions of this Department Constitution.

ARTICLE XIV - AMENDMENTS

Section1. Procedure to Amend. This Constitution may be amended at any Department Convention by a favorable vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the total delegate votes on the floor. It is further provided that the proposed amendments shall have been read at such convention at least four hours before being voted upon; and further provided that a record of the vote and the amendments shall be preserved. All proposed amendments to the Department Constitution must be presented to the Chairman of the Department Constitution and By-Laws Committee of the Convention by noon of the opening day of the Convention business session.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I - DEPARTMENT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Composition. The Department Executive Committee shall consist of the Department Commander, the National Executive Committeeman, the Alternate National Executive Committeeman, the Immediate Past Department Commander, Department Vice Commander, Department Treasurer, Department Judge Advocate, Department Chaplain, Department Historian, Department Sergeant at Arms, four Division Commanders, one District Commander from each American Legion District in the State. The Department Judge Advocate, Department Chaplain and Department Treasurer shall not have a vote on the Department Executive Committee. All past National Commanders of the Department, while in good standing in their respective Posts, shall be members for life of the Department Executive Committee, without vote.

Section 2. Past Department Commanders. All Past Department Commanders who served in that capacity while a member of the Department of Texas, while in good standing in their respective Post within the Department, shall have a voice, without vote, at all Department Executive Committee Meetings, except the Immediate Past Department Commander who shall be a voting member of the Department Executive Committee in accordance with Article I Section 1.

ARTICLE II - BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1. Appointment and Terms. A Board of Trustees is hereby created to consist of six members of The American Legion, Department of Texas, and the current Department Commander, with right to vote, to be known as "The Board of Trustees of The American Legion, Department of Texas." One member of said Board of Trustees shall be elected each year by the Department Executive Committee on nomination by the Department Commander to serve for a term of six years. No member of said Board shall be eligible to succeed himself/herself unless serving an unexpired term.

Section 2. Election of Officers; Members with Voice Only. At the first regular meeting of the Board of Trustees in each year, the Board shall elect a Chairman and a Vice Chairman who shall serve for a term of one year and shall not be eligible to succeed themselves. The Department Treasurer, Chairman of Finance and Budget Committee, Department Judge Advocate, and Department Adjutant shall serve the Board in their respective capacities but shall not be granted privilege of vote on any question coming before the Board of Trustees. The meetings of the Board shall be held at such time and place as deemed necessary by the chairman or on call of three members thereof. The Board of Trustees shall be responsible to the Department of Texas.

Section 3. Authority; No Compensation. A majority shall have power to act and to exercise all the authority of the Board. The members of the Board shall serve without pay.

Section 4. Vacancies. If a member of the Board of Trustees fails to attend in person two consecutive meetings of the Board, without a valid cause, his/her place shall be declared vacant. Vacancies in the Board of Trustees shall be filled by election by the Department Executive Committee of The American Legion, Department of Texas, upon nomination by the Department Commander.

Section 5. Duties and Functions

a. Duties. The duties of the Board of Trustees shall be to take charge of all trust funds and all trust properties, real, personal or mixed, the legal title to which is now vested, or may hereafter vest, in The American Legion, Department of Texas, or which may be offered to and accepted by The American Legion, Department of Texas. The disposal of Department property shall be made only upon a resolution authorizing same by the Board of Trustees and the execution of proper instrument of conveyance by the current Department Commander and attested to by the Department Adjutant.

b. Investment Limitations. Said Board shall have the power and it shall be its duty to invest and reinvest such funds, and to administer said properties according to their discretion as trustees; provided, however, that in no event shall such Board of Trustees invest any such property or funds as may come into their possession except in such income property as guardians are, at the time of such investment, authorized to invest the funds of their wards as provided by the laws of the State of Texas. Said Board may delegate to a responsible trust company the details of handling such of said funds as they may find and deem advisable. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees to properly cover all property by adequate insurance in order that the Department shall be protected against fire, hail, tornado, liability and other losses. Coverage shall be only by such insurance companies as are authorized to do business in Texas by the State Board of Insurance.

c. Use of Funds. The income from all such properties and funds as said Board may hold for the benefit of The American Legion, Department of Texas, may be used by said Board for such purposes as may be recommended to and approved by the Department Executive Committee, and in no event shall any part of the corpus of such trust property or funds be expended for any other purpose whatsoever. If it shall be deemed advisable to sell any part of the corpus of such trust property the entire proceeds of such sale shall immediately be re-invested and shall become a part of the corpus of such trust estate. The income, if any, from mineral leases, whether as bonus or royalty, may be considered as income of the trust estate by said Board.

Section 6. Reimbursement of Expenses. The authorized expenses incurred by the members of said Board in the discharge of their duties shall be allowed them and shall be paid from the income of said trust estate upon approval of such expense account by the Chairman of the Board.

Section 7. Open Meetings; Minutes. All meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be open to any Legionnaire and the minutes of all proceedings of all meetings shall be retained in the joint custody of the Department Adjutant and the Chairman of the Board and extracts thereof made available to all Post Adjutants and Department Officers and Committee Chairmen upon request.

ARTICLE III - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. Department Commander

a. Chief Executive. The Department Commander shall be the executive head of the Department.

b. Principal Duties. It shall be the duty of the Department Commander to see that the Constitution and By-Laws of the Department are strictly observed and that the Department Officers properly execute their duties. The Department Commander shall have full power to enforce the provisions of the Department Constitution and By-Laws and mandates of the Department Convention and Department Executive Committee and shall make a semi-annual report to the Department Executive Committee of the Department Commander's activities and submit an annual report to the Department Convention.

c. Preside Over Meetings. The Department Commander shall be a member of the Department Executive Committee and shall notify all members of the Department Executive Committee of the time and place of all regular and called meetings at least five (5) days prior to such meetings, and shall preside at the meetings of the Department Executive Committee.

d. Authorize Travel Orders. The Department Commander only shall cause to be issued by the Department Adjutant, or other competent authority, travel orders on which disbursements shall be made by the Department Treasurer. The Department Officers, Division and District Commanders, and District Vice Commanders may be reimbursed for authorized expenses incurred while traveling within their territorial bounds, and to all meetings of the Department Executive Committee insofar as the approved budgets for travel shall permit for the Department, Divisions and Districts.

Section 2. Department Vice Commander

The Department Vice Commander shall have the qualifications of Department Commander and be elected at the annual Department Convention. In case of death, resignation or the failure of the Department Commander to serve for any reason, the Department Vice Commander shall assume the office of Department Commander. The Department Vice Commander shall be a member of the Department Executive Committee, shall be in charge of membership, and act as representative for the Department Commander.

Section 3. Department Adjutant

a. Record Proceedings. All proceedings of the Department Convention or any called Convention are to be drawn up in proper form and permanently recorded by the Department Adjutant.

b. File Convention Documents. All petitions, reports, appeals, returns, and other communications at the convention are to be delivered to the Department Adjutant and the Department Adjutant is to see that they are filed in an orderly manner and carefully preserved.

c. Attest Documents. No instrument of writing is authentic without the attestation of the Department Adjutant.

d. Facilitate Communications with Committees. The Department Adjutant is to distribute the documents referred to committees or other officers, according to the orders of the Department, and to notify such committees or other officers of their appointments to any duty.

e. Supervise Printing. The Department Adjutant shall supervise the printing of all documents, proceedings, and other matters ordered to be printed by the Executive Committee.

f. Transmit Minutes. After each Department Convention and Department Executive Committee meeting the Department Adjutant shall transmit to the Posts minutes of such meeting when a request for a copy of the minutes has been received in Department.

g. Maintain Record of Post Officers. The Department Adjutant shall keep an accurate list of all Posts and officers of the same, and shall supply all Department officers and Committeemen with this list.

h. Correspond with Posts. The Department Adjutant shall correspond with Posts and members in the Department and perform such other duties incidental to the Department Adjutant's office as the Department Commander and the Department Executive Committee may direct.

i. Salary and Conditions of Employment. The salary and conditions of employment of the Department Adjutant shall be fixed by the Department Executive Committee.

j. Make Record of Meetings; Not Entitled to Vote. The Department Adjutant shall attend all meetings of the Department Executive Committee and shall have the proceedings of the meetings recorded, and subsequently put into proper format. The Department Adjutant shall not be a member of the Department Executive Committee and is not entitled to a vote.

k. Monitor Expense Accounts. The Department Adjutant shall check the correctness and completeness of all expense accounts submitted to the Department for payment before they are turned over to the Department Commander for approval.

l. Unable to Perform Duties. In the event the Department Adjutant shall be unable to perform the duties of said office for any reason, the authority, duties and responsibilities of the Department Adjutant's office shall be assumed by a member of The American Legion appointed by the Department Commander, until the next Department Executive Committee meeting. The Department Executive Committee shall then elect a Department Adjutant according to Article IV, Section 10, of the Constitution.

m. Distribute Resolutions. The Department Adjutant shall report to all Posts in the Department the subjects of all Resolutions passed by Department Conventions. When this report includes Resolutions which contain distribution clauses, the Department Adjutant shall report compliance with the distribution clauses and shall cause a list of the actual recipients of copies of such resolutions to be filed with the Department file copies.

Section 4. Department Treasurer

a. Record Receipts. The Department Treasurer shall receive all funds due the Department from any source, giving the Department Treasurer's receipt thereof, and shall enter same in regular accounts with the purpose for which intended.

b. Make Disbursements. The Department Treasurer shall make disbursements only on legal orders from the Department Executive Committee.

c. Make Reports. The Department Treasurer shall make an annual report at the Department Convention, and such other reports as ordered by the Department Executive Committee.

Section 5. Department Judge Advocate

a. Qualifications. The Judge Advocate of the Department of Texas must be a graduate of an accredited Law School, licensed to practice law by the State of Texas and the Department Judge Advocate must be a member of the State Bar and a member in good standing of The American Legion, Department of Texas.

b. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Department Judge Advocate to pass on the legality of all documents and all questions of a legal nature, and to render the Department Judge Advocate's opinion on same to the Department Commander. The Department Judge Advocate will review the Department Constitution and Bylaws on an annual basis with the Department Constitution and Bylaws Chairman.

Section 6. Department Historian

The Department Historian shall keep an accurate history of the principal events pertaining to the Department, Posts and members thereof, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to the Department Historian by the Department Commander and the Department Executive Committee.

Section 7. Department Sergeant at Arms

The Department Sergeant at Arms shall be present at all conventions, and it shall be the Department Sergeant at Arms duty to carry all messages from the Department Commander to any other officers or members, or vice versa, and to maintain order and decorum in the meeting as provided in the Department Constitution and By-Laws, and as directed by the Department Commander.

Section 8. Department Chaplain

The Department Chaplain shall be charged with the spiritual welfare of the Department, attending meetings as required, which shall be opened and closed with non-sectarian prayer. The Department Chaplain shall also perform such other duties as may be assigned to the Department Chaplain by the Executive Committee or the Department Commander. Further, the Department Chaplain shall be available to carry on the "For God and Country" program, the annual Memorial Service, the "Chaplain's Workshops," the "Chaplain's Award" program, and to conduct non-sectarian religious services.

Section 9. Department Executive Committee

a. Administrative Powers. Between Department Conventions, the administrative powers of the Department shall be vested in the Department Executive Committee.

b. Time and Place of Meetings. The Department Executive Committee shall hold its meetings at least three times between Conventions, and more often if said Committee shall deem it necessary. The place and dates of such meetings shall be determined by the Department Commander, except that the first meeting of the Department Executive Committee shall be held immediately after the adjournment of the Department Convention.

c. Call of Meeting. The Department Executive Committee may be called to meet by order of the Department Commander, or on call being duly drawn up and signed by five members of the Department Executive Committee, and upon receipt of such request the Commander shall immediately call a meeting of the Department Executive Committee. In the event the Department Commander refuses to call a meeting of the Department Executive Committee, after the Department Commander has been requested by five members of the Department Executive Committee as outlined in Article III, Section 9c, of these Bylaws, the Department Adjutant shall call the meeting.

d. Proxy Voting; Quorum. No proxy except the District Vice Commander or a personal representative from the same District shall be permitted. A quorum for the transaction of business at any Department Executive Committee meeting shall consist of a majority of the voting members.

e. Removal and Vacancies.

(1) Failure to Attend. If a District Commander or Division Commander fails to attend in person two consecutive meetings of the Department Executive Committee without a valid cause, his/her place shall be declared vacant.

(2) Filling Vacancies. In the event of a vacancy, ineligibility, removal for cause, death, resignation or incapacity of a Department Official on the Department Executive Committee, the Department Commander shall appoint a qualified person to fill such vacancy for an interim period, subject to confirmation by the Department Executive Committee at its next meeting subject to the provisions in the Constitution (Article IV, Section 9).

f. Authorize Employees. The Department Executive Committee only shall authorize the employment of such personnel as they may deem necessary for the proper conducting of the affairs of the Department, and shall allow them such salaries as may be necessary. All Department employees shall report to and be under the supervision of the Department Adjutant. The employment of such employees may be terminated by the Department Adjutant. All employees, if eligible, shall be members of The American Legion, the American Legion Auxiliary or dependents thereof except: the Department Adjutant, all Directors and Department Service Officers who shall be members of The American Legion. All persons who are permanently employed by the Department Adjutant shall have their employment confirmed by the Department Executive Committee at the first meeting of the fiscal year. The Department Executive Committee shall also authorize all expenses for the Department Employees.

g. Institute Accounting System. The Department Executive Committee and/or the Finance Committee shall have instituted such systems of accounting that a detailed account may be obtained at any or all times of any and all receipts and disbursements, and shall authorize the necessary forms.

h. Quarterly Financial Statements. The Department Executive Committee shall cause to be issued a quarterly financial statement of the itemized financial accounts of the Department for the preceding quarter, and a copy of this statement shall be furnished to each officer and each member of the Department Executive Committee and, upon the request of any Post in the Department.

i. Removal or Suspension. Any member of the Department Executive Committee, a Department Committee or Department Commission may be removed or suspended for cause at a Department Executive Committee meeting by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all voting members present; provided that the officer shall have been served with a written statement of the complaint at least fifteen days before such vote shall be taken, and shall have an opportunity to be heard at the Department Executive Committee meeting. A District or Division Commander, on the recommendation of a majority of the Post Commanders of his/her District or Division may be suspended pending such a hearing by the Department Executive Committee.

j. Budget

(1) Preparation of Budget. The Department Commander with assistance of the Department Treasurer, Chairman of the Finance and Budget Committee, Chairman of the Board of Trustees and Department Adjutant shall prepare or cause to be prepared a proposed budget, a copy of which shall be delivered to each member of the Department Executive Committee, and each member of the Department's Finance and Budget Committee, and each member of the Board of Trustees not later than five (5) days prior to the first meeting of the Department Finance and Budget Committee.

(2) Limitation on Budgeted Expenditures. At the first meeting of the Department Finance and Budget Committee in each fiscal year, said Committee shall prepare budgets for the Department and the Board of Trustees, the net revenues of which shall not exceed the sum of the net revenues of the General Fund and the Total Receipts of the Trust Fund as reported on the General Fund and Trust Fund, Income and Expense Statements.

(3) Limitations on Approved Budget. At the fall meeting, The Department Executive Committee when confirming the budgets as prepared by the Department Finance and Budget Committee and the Boards of Trustees, shall not appropriate more than the sum of the net revenues of the General Fund and the Total Receipts of the Trust Fund as reported on the General Fund and Trust Fund, Income and Expense Statements.

(4) Fiscal Year. The Fiscal year for the Department of Texas shall commence on September 1 of each year and run through August 31 of the following year. The budget, when adopted by the Department Executive Committee, shall remain in full force and effect until changed at a future meeting of the Department Executive Committee, but still subject to Section 9j(3).

k. Open Meetings; Digest of Proceedings. All meetings of the Department Executive Committee shall be open to any Legionnaire and the digest of all proceedings shall be furnished to any Legionnaire upon request. The Department Adjutant shall prepare the digest of proceedings within sixty (60) days.

l. National Convention Expenses. The Department Executive Committee at the meeting immediately following the adjournment of the Department Convention shall authorize a sum to cover travel expenses and additional expenses as may be approved by the Department Executive Committee for the incoming Department Commander, National Convention Delegation Chairman and the Department Adjutant, which funds shall be used to attend the National Convention as representatives of the Department of Texas. Each shall furnish Department Headquarters, within thirty days after the Convention, a written report of their activities and disposition of various Departmental matters of the convention. A copy of his/her report shall be furnished each Department officer or any Legionnaire upon request.

m. Requests for Unbudgeted Appropriations.

(1) Initial Submission to Finance and Budget. No appropriation shall be considered by the Department Executive Committee or Department Convention unless the appropriation has first been submitted to and passed upon by the Department Finance and Budget Committee.

In the event a proposed appropriation is rejected by the Department Finance and Budget Committee, the proponent of such proposition may present the matter to the Department Executive Committee and/or to the Department Convention for final action.

(2) Non-Budgeted Emergency Expenditure. All requests for expenditures of Department funds not budgeted for the purpose requested shall, before referral to the Department Executive Committee or Department Convention, be referred to the Department Finance and Budget Committee, which shall render an advisory opinion as to the availability of funds and the impact on the Department of the expenditure.

(3) Limitations on Unbudgeted Expenditures Not Related to Real Estate. Requests for non-budgeted expenditures not related to Real Estate shall not exceed 10% of the current budget net revenues of the General Fund and shall require the approval of the Finance and Budget Committee and four-fifths (4/5) majority of the members of the Department Executive Committee or Delegates to the Department Convention.

(4) Limitation on Unbudgeted Expenditures Related to Real Estate. Requests for non-budgeted expenditures relating to Real Estate shall require the approval of the Board of Trustees, the Finance and Budget Committee and four-fifths (4/5) majority of the members of the Department Executive Committee or Delegates to the Department Convention.

n. Reimbursement of Expenses. Authorized expenses of members of the Department Executive Committee incurred in the discharge of their official duties shall be allowed them when expense accounts have been properly submitted within the thirty (30) day period.

o. Changes to Membership Goals. No changes shall be made to the annual membership goals or awards after they have been approved by the Department Executive Committee, except to correct administrative error.

p. Electronic Meetings. If the Department Commander decides that a decision requiring the approval of the Department Executive Committee cannot be delayed until the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Department Executive Committee, the Department Commander, in coordination with the Department Adjutant and the Department Judge Advocate, will prepare a resolution fully explaining the facts and background information that necessitates a decision that cannot be delayed and a "RESOLVED" clause that clearly sets forth the action that the Department Executive Committee is being asked to approve. The resolution shall be sent by e-mail to the Department Executive Committee members, who shall have 48 hours to "Reply All" with any debate. Voting members will vote by e-mail not sooner than 48 hours and no later than 72 hours after the initiating email. In order to approve the resolution, 2/3 of the voting members of the Department Executive Committee must vote in the affirmative.

ARTICLE IV - COMMITTEES AND COMMISSIONS

Section 1. Department Committees. The Committees for the Department shall consist of the following:

The Chairman of each Commission shall be designated annually by the Commander, except that the Department Vice Commander shall be chairman of the Membership Sub-Division.

d. Election May Disqualify Commission or Committee Members. In the event a Division member of a standing commission or committee is elected to the Department Executive Committee, he/she shall, if his/her term does not expire prior to assuming office, resign his/her position as Division member so that the incoming Department Commander may appoint a member to fill the unexpired term. They shall not be reappointed until their term on the Department Executive Committee has expired. Members of the Department Executive Committee shall not be appointed to any commission or committee unless such appointment is specifically addressed within this Constitution or Bylaws.

e. Duties of Commissions. Duties of the Commissions consist of duties normally appertaining thereto and as may be assigned by the Department Convention, the Department Commander and the Department Executive Committee.

f. Removal of Members. A member of any standing Committee or Commission may be removed for proper and adequate cause by the Department Commander, with the consent of the Department Executive Committee, and he/she shall be replaced for the unexpired term in the manner provided for the original appointment.
