The Woodlands, TX (May 30, 2011) – The Woodlands American Legion Post 305 Color Guard marches in Houston National Cemetery Memorial Day observance.

The Woodlands American Legion Post 305 Color Guard, representing the Posts' 338 active members, marched in the Houston National Cemetery Memorial Day observances on May 30, 2011. The Color Guard Unit; commanded by incoming 2011-2012 Post 305 Commander Kimberly Biggerstaff, is composed of flankers under arms Kimberly Biggerstaff and James Bolin who guard the Colors carried by Earl Jones and Pickens Jones. Commander Biggerstaff, addressing members and guests present, said "honoring our fallen soldiers, sailors, airmen and marines on this day of remembrance is a small token compared to their ultimate sacrifice in safeguarding our great nation".
